Part IV

Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2; Part III, column (b); and any other additional information.

Schedule I, Part I, Line 2 - KidVantage grants essential goods for children, not cash, to local provider partners that assess the situation of a family and their needs. Representatives of partner agencies place and pick up orders on a weekly basis using our online ordering system. KidVantage values grants based on the value of the items distributed as recorded in our inventory system. All orders are signed for at the time of pick-up. Provider partners are verified tax-exempt organizations, including government agencies, schools, churches, for profits sponsoring government funded programs such as Early Head Start, and 501(c)(3) nonprofits. Through the online ordering and inventory system, we monitor types, frequency, and volume of orders; distribution to agencies, program and providers, and number of orders filled.

What KidVantage does is connect the community while caring for their neighbors, reducing the societal inequities that prevent children from flourishing.

Mission Description

Description

a mission of helping kids reach their full potential tomorrow by meeting basic needs today. Research shows that providing children the right ingredients for healthy development - emphasizing protective factors that can counterbalance the effects of adversity- from the start produces better outcomes than trying to fix problems later. Our strength comes from deep community participation, through volunteering, donating goods and social connections.
